

Fact Sheet:

D.C. Department of Insurance &
Securities Regulation

Pre-Licensing Education Requirements

The District of Columbia's Continuing Education and Pre-Licensing Rule went into effect May 19, 2000.

- ▶ Each applicant who applies for license as an insurance agent or broker shall furnish at the time of filing his or her application, evidence of satisfactorily completing a pre-licensing course of instruction consisting of 40 hours.
- ▶ Fifty minutes of classroom time is counted as one credit hour.
- ▶ Every applicant for license shall take the appropriate examination within one (1) year of completing a pre-licensing course.
- ▶ Self-study courses are approved for pre-licensing and do not require a supervised examination.
- ▶ Each pre-licensing course of instruction shall meet the content and time requirements of each line of insurance the applicant proposes to transact as set forth in the amendment to Chapter 1 of the DC Municipal Code, effective May 19, 2000 located in Appendices 1, 2, 3 or 4, whichever is applicable.

Pre-licensing Provider Applications:

*Pre-licensing provider applications will be available August 1, 2000.

For an application or for more information:

Government of the District of Columbia
Department of Insurance and Securities Regulation
*Attention: Valerie E. Taylor,
Compliance Program Specialist*
810 – 1st Street, NE, Suite 701
Washington, DC 20002
202-442-7818(phone); 202-535-1197 (fax)
E-mail: vtaylor-disr@dcgov.org